DEVOTIONAL THOUGHT

Psalm 1:2-3

But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all he does, he prospers.

"When the root is bitterness, imagine what the fruit might be."

Woodrow Kroll

GENERAL INFORMATION

Dear Parents/Caregivers

Tena Koutou Katoa

We are almost at the end of another term and it's wonderful to see that our children are in school every day and persevering to the end. With this cold weather, I'm sure that it is not easy getting up in the morning, so we are all looking forward to a well-deserved break. It is also great to see that our sport teams are turning up for their Saturday or midweek games. A special THANK YOU goes to our wonderful parent helpers and supporters of our sport teams. We have certainly seen the growth in skills and confidence of our teams.

The teaching staff will be attending the NZ Association of Christian Schools Conference in Auckland during the first three days of the July school holidays. It is a wonderful opportunity for Christian school teachers to get together, share their practice and continue their learning.

This week we are having our parent-teacher interviews between 3.00 and 6.00pm. If you have not booked your interview yet, it is never too late. If this week does not suit, please arrange with the class teacher on a time that suits both of you. We do not want you to miss out on this opportunity.

This term we focused on Fruits of the Spirit. What kind of fruit are you bearing today?

Fruit of the Spirit by Max Lucado

"I choose love. No occasion justifies hatred; no injustice warrants bitterness.

I choose joy. I will invite my God to be the God of circumstance.

I choose peace. I will live forgiven. I will forgive so that I may live.

I choose patience. I will overlook the inconveniences of the world. Instead of cursing the one who took my place, I'll invite him to do so.

I choose kindness. I will be kind to the unkind, for such is how God has treated me.

I choose goodness. I will go without a dollar before I take a dishonest one.

I choose faithfulness. Today I will keep my promises.
I choose gentleness. Nothing is won by force. I choose to be gentle.
*I choose self-control. I refuse to let what will rot, rule the eternal.
I will be drunk only with joy.*

Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. To these I commit my day. If I succeed, I will give thanks. If I fail, I will seek His grace. And then when this day is done, I will place my head on my pillow and rest.

Try your best to leave a little of each fruit with someone each day. Everyone may not be getting their daily allowance. Reap the benefits of bearing good fruit as well as consuming it”.
