declares the Lord, 'Plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.'

Dear Parents

Tena koutou katoa

We have had quite a few inquiries about our school. Last week alone I did four interviews and we're having two new students starting later this week. We welcome to Sonrise our newest new entrants - Faith Reynolds and Magriet Coetzer who are visiting at this stage to officially start next week on their 5th birthdays. We also welcome Marcus Gray to Room 2 and hope and pray that they very quickly become part of our wonderful community. We are so blessed to have you all start at Sonrise.

Reminder: School Photo Day tomorrow.

Please ensure that your children are neatly attired every day and wearing the school uniform appropriately. We are noticing lots of other colours creeping in again especially when it comes to footwear. The standard is black shoes and black, navy or white socks. Jandals is not part of our school uniform. As the weather warms up, school sandals must have a back strap. The uniform has been chosen for comfort and safety. Your support in this is greatly appreciated.

God Bless, Wendy Gabriel
